

Land art

And the magic that comes with it

What is land art?

- From late 1960s and early 1970s
- Natural materials
- Site-specific
- Against commercialized art
- Connection with nature and transience

A couple of famous pieces

Richard Long, "A Line Made By Walking" (1967)

Robert Smithson, "Spiral Jetty" (1970)

What can be used?

Stones

Wood

Leaves

And anything else you can find on the site...

Why land art?

- Relaxation
- Grounding
- Mindfulness
- Overall well-being
- Accessibility

Your task

1. In a group, create a piece of Land art on any topic from the previous days.
 2. Be creative and use any natural materials you can find.
 3. Be ready to present your project for everyone :
(5min per group).
-

Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them.

This material was made in partnership as part of the Growth and Art project. The presentation was prepared by an international team of experts.

AMIGOS ^{DE}
EUROPA

Funded by the European Union

BEMA20